

Basic Possessive Pronouns Worksheet

Part 1: Basic Possessive Pronouns

The most common possessive pronouns are listed in the table below. Match each one to the subject pronoun it can stand for.

her	hers	his	its	mine	my
our	ours	their	theirs	your	yours

- I - Which two possessive pronouns are used for "I"? _____
- you - Which two possessive pronouns are used for "you"? _____
- he - Which one possessive pronoun is used for "he"? _____
- she - Which two possessive pronouns are used for "she"? _____
- it - Which one possessive pronoun is used for "it"? _____
- we - Which two possessive pronouns are used for "we"? _____
- they - Which two possessive pronouns are used for "they"? _____

Part 2: Practice Choosing the Correct Possessive Pronoun

Circle the correct possessive pronoun for each of the sentences below.

- Does this cat belong to (they, them)?
- You can't have (my, mine) cookie.
- It is (our, ours) turn.
- Look at (her, hers) funny hat.
- That ring has lost (its, it's) shine.
- This car is (my, mine).
- Dogs love to play. It is a favorite activity of (their, theirs).
- Are you sure this is (your, yours)?
- Is this (your, yours) coat?
- My brother lost (hes, his) new shoes.

Part 3: Practice Substituting Possessive Pronouns for Nouns

Rewrite each of the sentences so that it uses a possessive pronoun instead of identifying the subject. Circle the possessive pronoun in each new sentence.

- Look at the boy's hat. _____
- Let's go to Paul's house. _____
- That game is my family's. _____
- Is that Susan and Ted's house? _____
- I want to see Mary's dress. _____

Answer Key: Basic Possessive Pronouns Worksheet

Part 1: Basic Possessive Pronouns

The most common possessive pronouns are listed in the table below. Match each one to the subject pronoun it can stand for.

her	hers	his	its	mine	my
our	ours	their	theirs	your	yours

- I - Which two possessive pronouns are used for "I"?
- you - Which two possessive pronouns are used for "your"?
- he - Which one possessive pronoun is used for "he"?
- she - Which two possessive pronouns are used for "she"?
- it - Which one possessive pronoun is used for "it"?
- we - Which two possessive pronouns are used for "we"?
- they - Which two possessive pronouns are used for "they"?

my	mine
your	yours
his
her	hers
its
our	ours
their	theirs

Part 2: Practice Choosing the Correct Possessive Pronoun

Circle the correct possessive pronoun for each of the sentences below.

- Does this cat belong to (they, them)?
- You can't have (my, mine) cookie.
- It is (our, ours) turn.
- Look at (her, hers) funny hat.
- That ring has lost (its, it's) shine.
- This car is (my, mine).
- Dogs love to play. It is a favorite activity of (their, theirs).
- Are you sure this is (your, yours)?
- Is this (your, yours) coat?
- My brother lost (hes, his) new shoes.

Part 3: Practice Substituting Possessive Pronouns for Nouns

Rewrite each of the sentences so that it uses a possessive pronoun instead of identifying the subject.

Circle the possessive pronoun in each new sentence.

- Look at the boy's hat. Look at his hat.
- Let's go to Paul's house. Let's go to his house.
- That game is my family's. That game is ours.
- Is that Susan and Ted's house? Is that their house?
- I want to see Mary's dress. I want to see her dress.