

Name: _____

Date: _____

SCAVENGER HUNT: TRACK DOWN ADVERBS IN SENTENCES

Instructions: Underline the adverbs in each sentence. Every sentence has at least one adverb. Some have more than one. There are a total of 21 adverbs in the numbered sentences on this worksheet.

1. Susie was so very excited to learn that her parents were planning to adopt a rescue dog.
2. After taking three tests in one day, Maddie wearily asked to be excused from family game night.
3. I have searched everywhere and I cannot find a pair of really cute tennis shoes.
4. We went to the park yesterday. It felt so good to spend time playing outside.
5. I regularly study for two hours in the evenings after I get home from dance class.
6. My little brother is mildly annoying, but I really love him.
7. I recently visited Yellowstone National Park with my family.
8. I have to get weekly allergy shots at my doctor's office.
9. My aunt said, "Come here and give me a big hug."
10. I have not been sleeping well lately.
11. I almost fell on the stairs, but was able to grab the handrail.
12. I am quite tired of being asked the same question daily.

13. She is always very cheerful in class.

14. I accidentally spilled cranberry juice on my sister's favorite sweater.

15. I politely asked her why she did not return my book yesterday.

SCAVENGER HUNT: TRACK DOWN ADVERBS IN SENTENCES

ANSWER KEY

1. Susie was so very excited to learn that her parents were planning to adopt a rescue dog.
2. After taking three tests in one day, Maddie wearily asked to be excused from family game night.
3. I have searched everywhere and I cannot find a pair of really cute tennis shoes.
4. We went to the park yesterday. It felt so good to spend time playing outside.
5. I regularly study for two hours in the evenings after I get home from dance class.
6. My little brother is mildly annoying, but I really love him.
7. I recently visited Yellowstone National Park with my family.
8. I have to get weekly allergy shots at my doctor's office.
9. My aunt said, "Come here and give me a big hug."
10. I have not been sleeping well lately.
11. I almost fell on the stairs, but was able to grab the handrail.
12. I am quite tired of being asked the same question daily.
13. She is always very cheerful in class.
14. I accidentally spilled cranberry juice on my sister's favorite sweater.
15. I politely asked her why she did not return my book yesterday.