

Collective Noun Examples

Any singular noun that describes a collection or group of people, animals, or things is a collective noun.

For People

- audience of viewers
- band of brothers
- board of directors
- cast of clowns
- choir of singers
- class of students
- committee of experts
- company of dancers
- crowd of fans
- faculty of teachers
- family of relatives
- firm of lawyers
- gang of bandits
- group of fans
- jury of peers
- party of two
- society of people

For Animals

- brood of chickens
- clutch of rabbits
- colony of ants
- drove of horses
- flock of ducks
- gaggle of geese
- herd of elephants
- hive of bees
- litter of puppies
- nest of robins
- pack of wolves
- plague of locusts
- pride of lions
- school of fish
- skein of swans
- tribe of goats
- yoke of oxen

For Things

- array of magazines
- batch of DVDs
- bevy of options
- bowl of cereal
- box of chocolate
- bucket of marbles
- bunch of bananas
- case of sodas
- cup of marshmallows
- deck of cards
- galaxy of stars
- harvest of vegetables
- packet of salt
- pile of toys
- portfolio of investments
- string of pearls
- vault of money