

Demonstrative Pronoun Quiz #2

Study Sheet

- Demonstrative pronouns are not followed by nouns.
- The most popular demonstrative pronouns are this, that, these and those. Other demonstrative pronouns are such, none and neither.

Quiz

A. Instructions: Underline the demonstrative pronouns in the following sentences:

1. Those are terrible jokes.
2. Such is the human race.
3. Neither is sufficient.
4. That is the way the cookie crumbles.
5. He will allow none.

B. Instructions: Underline the demonstrative pronouns in the following sentences and put an S for subject and an O for object.

1. _____ You can't have that because it's mine.
2. _____ Such is the nature of man.
3. _____ I have forgotten neither.
4. _____ This is a strange play.
5. _____ There is none.
6. _____ These are the best of times.
7. _____ That is my best friend.
8. _____ Neither is a good choice.
9. _____ Give me that!
10. _____ None are lonelier than he.

C. Instructions: Write two sentences using each word as a subject and an object.

1. none (subject)
2. none (object)
3. that (subject)
4. that (object)
5. those (subject)
6. those (object)
7. neither (subject)
8. neither (object)
9. this (subject)
10. this (object)