

Identifying Demonstrative Pronouns and Demonstrative Adjectives

A. DIRECTIONS: Underline the demonstrative pronoun or demonstrative adjective in each sentence. Write a DP on the blank line if it is a demonstrative pronoun and DA if it is a demonstrative adjective.

1. ____ Those cattle are running away.
2. ____ This is the last straw.
3. ____ I gave you those books yesterday.
4. ____ I will forget this if I don't write it down.
5. ____ These actors are very skilled.
6. ____ I can readily see that.
7. ____ This fruit is rotten.
8. ____ Give me that hat.
9. ____ That is all there is.
10. ____ Those are stinky.

B. DIRECTIONS: Underline all the demonstrative pronouns in these sentences. Do not underline the demonstrative adjectives. There are 10.

These are the worst brownies I have ever tasted. That is the truth. Such is baking, but none are edible. I should try these cookies instead. I will have this or that, and find something delicious. I will forget this ever happened and eat those brownies again. I tasted two cookies and neither is much better than the brownies. This is awful. Such is life!
