

Travel and Transportation Vocabulary

When you travel to a Spanish-speaking country, knowing vocabulary for transportation will help you get where you want to go!

El metro/subte – Subway	El tren - Train	El avión – Airplane

El pasaporte - Passport	El equipaje - Luggage	El pasaje/boleto - Ticket
		<table><tr><th colspan="2">Passenger Ticket</th><th>Boarding Pass</th></tr><tr><td>Class FIRST CLASS</td><td></td><td>Class FIRST CLASS</td></tr><tr><td>Date 27 MAY 2017</td><td>Seat 13A</td><td>Seat 13A</td></tr><tr><td>From Somewhere</td><td>To Someplace</td><td>To Someplace</td></tr><tr><td colspan="2">Name John Smith</td><td>From Somewhere</td></tr></table>	Passenger Ticket		Boarding Pass	Class FIRST CLASS		Class FIRST CLASS	Date 27 MAY 2017	Seat 13A	Seat 13A	From Somewhere	To Someplace	To Someplace	Name John Smith		From Somewhere
Passenger Ticket		Boarding Pass
Class FIRST CLASS		Class FIRST CLASS
Date 27 MAY 2017	Seat 13A	Seat 13A
From Somewhere	To Someplace	To Someplace
Name John Smith		From Somewhere

These phrases may come in handy during your travels.

- ¿Cómo puedo ir a...?
How can I get to...?
- Un boleto, por favor.
One ticket, please.
- ¿A qué hora sale el próximo tren para (Barcelona)?
At what time does the next train to (Barcelona) leave?
- Perdí mi equipaje.
I lost my luggage.